420 Renegade is pure and simple a lot of boat for its size in fact with its Blade Hull That only (Quintrex can do) and 3mm plate construction from top to bottom stem to stern this boat is solid as it is capable.

In fact renegades have earned a reputation as giant slayers simply because they provide a level of on water ride and performance that has to be experienced to be believed.

And that explains why this is the number one selling boat in the country year after year and as we say the whole Country cannot be wrong year after year.

Renegades also come standard with extruded side decks front and rear casting platforms plus rear step and transducer brackets, the list just goes on and on.
